The Balfour Centenary Pack has been produced by Yachad Scotland as an aid to an understanding – theological and geo-political – of the place of modern day Israel and the Jewish people in God's purposes.

The pack is designed to be made available to the churches in Scotland and to any other interested parties.

The Balfour Declaration: November 1917

"Passion is the ruin of Princes and peoples... Those who have persecuted or condemned the Jews could tell you the tale. The Empire of Spain in the old days and the Empire of Russia in our time show the road of ruin that Jewish persecution leads to.

*You say to yourself what is this race despised, rejected, abhorred, that cannot fight, that has no home and is no nation?
O Feisal, I can read your heart and your thought, and there are counselors about you who will whisper similar things in your ear. Believe I speak the truth when I say that this race, despised and weak, is universal, is all-powerful and cannot be put down."*

British diplomat and Middle East adviser Sir Mark Sykes (of the Sykes-Picot Agreement of 1916) in a letter to Prince Feisal Hussein, son of Sharif Hussein of Mecca and the Hejaz.
